Subject: GUIDELINES FOR FORMULATION OF ANNUAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME, 2022-23

Annual Development Programme (ADP) represents a key policy instrument for achieving development vision of the Government through strategic resource allocation evaluating social and economic impact. ADP interventions are the prime features of Governments' vision for pro-poor, inclusive, equitable and sustained economic growth with a focus on regional equalization. However, requirements of the Province are diverse and continuously changing primarily due to increase in population and urbanization. Accordingly, the per capita development budget necessitates sustained and well thought-out formulation of ADP. The Administrative Departments are therefore, requested to confer paramount importance and meticulous handling.

2. To assist the Administrative Departments, the Planning & Development Board has developed Guidelines for formulation of ADP 2022-23 and to guide all stakeholders in ADP formulation.

3. It is requested to initiate the process of ADP 2022-23 formulation and complete the tasks within the prescribed time schedule. The Attached Departments / Autonomous Bodies, Project Directors and Executing Agencies under your administrative control may also be advised to prepare their draft ADP 2022-23 in conformity to the guidelines. For ready reference, these guidelines are also uploaded on the P&D Board's website i.e. www.pndpunjab.gov.pk.
