SUBJECT: UPWARD REVISION OF DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS.

The Competent Authority in P&DD has observed that the development schemes are being revised at enhanced cost without seeking prior approval of the P&D Department and the Departments / Executing Agencies submit demand for provision of additional / balance funds on the basis of revised cost. This practice is against planning discipline and in violation of P&D's instructions issued on 07-06-2017, 06-07-2017 and 10-8-2017 which are reproduced below:

“The PC-I of the schemes must be prepared / approved within the indicated cost in the ADP. If the indicated cost is less as compared to the scope of the scheme / nomenclature, in such cases, the scope may be curtailed and only important segment of the scheme may be taken up for approval and execution within the same printed cost”.

2. Forgoing in view, it is again reiterated that the planning foras may ensure that the schemes are not revised upward without prior approval of P&D Department as it involves financial implications in terms of demand of additional funds as well as addition in the throwforward for the next financial year. The P&D Department would not be liable to consider funding of such schemes through Annual Development Programme.

The above instructions may please be communicated to all field formalities of your department for strict competence.
